11 Civ. 1702 (BSJ) (AJP)

ORDER OF DISMISSAL ON CONSENT

ANDREW J. PECK, United States Magistrate Judge:

The parties having informed the Court that they have reached a settlement agreement in principle and are finalizing settlement documents (see attached letter), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT this action is dismissed with prejudice and without costs, provided, however, that any party may reinstate the action within 15 days hereof if the settlement is not fully effectuated. Any pending motions are to be terminated as moot.

SO ORDERED.

Re: HHC v. GRM Information Management Services -- 11 cv 1702

Dear Judge Peck:

I write on behalf of counsel for GRM, Linn Freedman, and myself to update you further concerning this matter. We want you to know that the parties have reached an agreement in principle to settle this matter. As Ms. Freedman advised the Court in her letter of September 28, 2011, the parties have postponed addressing outstanding discovery matters while pursuing settlement. That continues to be the case. We expect that we will be advising you shortly of our intention to file a dismissal stipulation in this matter, but settlement is in the drafting stage and is not yet final.

We will keep you informed of developments as they occur. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Joshua P. Rubin
